

It is extremely disappointing to hear that the government is trying to prevent national radio services, like XM Radio or Sirrus, from providing local broadcasting. I am a current subscriber to XM Radio and was glad to hear about the local traffic and weather reporting on XM. I listen to it every morning, and want the service to continue.